

JUDO MARKETING

PRIVACY POLICY

For website visitors, prospects, clients, subscriptions, and digital services.

Effective Date: 07/06/2026

1. Information We Collect

Judo Marketing may collect basic business and contact information from current clients, prospective clients, website visitors, and individuals or businesses contacted for business purposes.

- Name, business name, job title, and business contact information.
- Email address, phone number, mailing address, website, social media profile, or public business listing.
- Information submitted through forms, scheduling pages, email, phone, text message, social media, or other direct communication.
- Billing, subscription, project, domain, hosting, design, advertising, automation, or service-related information.
- Limited sensitive information when a client voluntarily provides it and it is necessary to perform a requested service.

We do not intentionally request unnecessary protected health information, patient information, financial information, or other sensitive information. Clients should only provide sensitive information when it is required for the requested service.

2. How We Use Information

Judo Marketing uses information for legitimate business purposes, including:

- To contact potential clients for an initial business introduction.
- To respond to inquiries, consultations, quotes, proposals, and service requests.
- To provide websites, digital products, virtual assistants, automation tools, marketing packages, advertising support, content services, consulting, and related services.
- To manage subscriptions, billing, account access, domains, hosting, software, project timelines, service updates, and client communications.
- To send occasional promotional or service-related communications, subject to opt-out rights.
- To maintain business records, security logs, compliance records, and internal operations.

Information is not used for unrelated purposes and is not sold.

3. Marketing Communications and Opt-Out

Judo Marketing may contact businesses or individuals to introduce services or send occasional advertising or promotional communications. This outreach is generally used for business development and first contact.

You may opt out at any time by replying "unsubscribe," "stop," or by contacting admin@judomarketing.net. Opt-out requests for commercial email communications will be honored within the time required by applicable law. After opting out, you may still receive communications related to active services, billing, security, legal notices, or administrative matters.

4. Sharing Information

Judo Marketing does not sell personal information. Information may be shared only when reasonably necessary to:

- Provide requested services.
- Work with vendors, contractors, hosting providers, payment processors, software platforms, advertising platforms, domain registrars, automation platforms, or other service providers.
- Comply with law, legal process, contractual obligations, or government requests.
- Protect the rights, property, business operations, clients, users, or security of Judo Marketing.
- Complete a business transfer, merger, acquisition, restructuring, or sale of assets, subject to appropriate confidentiality protections.

Service providers are expected to use information only for the purpose of supporting the requested service.

5. Data Security

Judo Marketing uses encrypted systems and HIPAA-compliant platforms when applicable to help protect sensitive client information from unauthorized access, misuse, loss, or disclosure.

Security safeguards may include access controls, password-protected accounts, encrypted storage or transmission, limited personnel access, administrative controls, vendor security controls, and deletion procedures. Sensitive information collected or processed for a project is automatically deleted after 90 days unless a longer period is required for legal, billing, administrative, security, or active service purposes.

No website, email system, software platform, or online transmission method can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. Clients and users should avoid sending unnecessary sensitive information through unsecured channels.

6. Data Retention

Judo Marketing retains business and contact information only as long as reasonably necessary for communication, business records, service delivery, billing, marketing follow-up, compliance, security, or administrative purposes.

Sensitive information collected or processed as part of a client project is automatically deleted after 90 days unless retention is required for legal, billing, administrative, security, or active service purposes. Opt-out records may be retained as needed to honor unsubscribe or stop-contact requests.

7. Florida Data Protection and Breach Response

Judo Marketing maintains reasonable measures designed to protect electronic personal information. If a security incident creates a legal notification obligation, Judo Marketing will evaluate the incident and provide notices required by applicable law, including Florida breach notification requirements when applicable.

8. Publicly Available Business Information

Judo Marketing may use publicly available business information to identify and contact businesses that may benefit from its services. Sources may include business websites, social media profiles, directories, public listings, search results, professional pages, or other public sources.

This information is used privately for business outreach and is not sold.

9. Healthcare and HIPAA-Related Information

Judo Marketing may provide services to healthcare, ABA therapy, wellness, or other regulated businesses. When a client provides protected health information or other regulated information, Judo Marketing uses HIPAA-compliant and encrypted platforms when applicable and processes such information only as necessary for the requested service.

If a Business Associate Agreement is required, it must be signed before protected health information is transmitted or processed. Clients are responsible for ensuring that any information they provide is shared lawfully and is limited to the minimum necessary for the service.

10. Your Choices and Requests

You may contact admin@judomarketing.net to request access, correction, deletion, marketing opt-out, or information about how your data is used. Requests may be subject to identity verification and limitations required by law, billing obligations, active service requirements, security obligations, or recordkeeping requirements.

11. Children's Privacy

Judo Marketing provides business-to-business services and does not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13 years of age.

12. Updates

Judo Marketing may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Updates will be posted on www.judomarketing.net with a revised effective date.

13. Contact

Judo Marketing

Website: www.judomarketing.net

Email: admin@judomarketing.net