

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

For services, subscriptions, digital products, virtual assistants, marketing packages, websites, and consulting.

Effective Date: 07/06/2026

1. Agreement to Terms

These Terms and Conditions govern the use of services, websites, digital products, virtual assistants, automation tools, marketing packages, advertising support, consulting, subscriptions, and related services provided by Judo Marketing. By requesting services, signing a proposal, paying an invoice, submitting a form, approving work, using a delivered product, or continuing a subscription, the client agrees to these Terms.

Additional written proposals, statements of work, invoices, order forms, or service agreements may apply. If there is a conflict, the more specific written agreement controls for that project.

2. Services

Judo Marketing may provide services including website design and maintenance, landing pages, digital products, virtual assistants, workflow automations, appointment and booking systems, CRM or form setup, social media content, branding support, advertising setup, campaign management, marketing strategy, lead generation support, consulting, and related digital services.

Services may be provided as one-time projects, monthly subscriptions, digital product subscriptions, service packages, or custom proposals.

3. Client Responsibilities

The client is responsible for providing accurate information, timely approvals, required access, logos, brand materials, account credentials, domain or hosting access, service descriptions, legal disclaimers, industry-specific requirements, and any content or materials needed to complete the work.

- The client must review and approve content, advertisements, websites, automations, messages, forms, and published materials before use.
- The client must ensure that claims about its products, services, prices, credentials, licenses, results, testimonials, and offers are truthful, substantiated, and legally permitted.
- The client must not provide unnecessary sensitive information, protected health information, patient information, financial data, or confidential data unless required and approved through secure procedures.
- The client is responsible for maintaining its own business licenses, professional licenses, insurance, regulatory compliance, service terms, privacy notices, and industry-specific obligations.

4. Payments, Fees, and Billing

Prices, setup fees, monthly subscription fees, advertising management fees, project fees, digital product fees, and custom service fees are stated in the applicable proposal, invoice, checkout page, order form, or written communication.

- Payments are due on the date stated on the invoice, checkout page, subscription plan, proposal, or agreement.
- Recurring subscriptions may be billed automatically according to the selected plan.
- The client is responsible for advertising budgets, third-party software charges, hosting, domains, payment processor fees, premium plugins, stock assets, and other external costs unless expressly included in writing.
- Late or failed payments may result in paused work, suspended access, delayed delivery, removal of support, or termination of services.

5. Subscriptions and Automatic Renewal

Monthly or recurring subscriptions continue until canceled according to the applicable plan. By purchasing a subscription, the client authorizes recurring charges to the payment method on file unless canceled before the next billing date.

Subscription terms, renewal dates, cancellation methods, included services, and pricing should be clearly displayed in the proposal, invoice, checkout page, or plan description. For any subscription or automatic renewal arrangement subject to Florida automatic renewal requirements, Judo Marketing will provide notices and cancellation options required by applicable law.

Cancellation requests may be sent to admin@judomarketing.net. Cancellation stops future billing after the current paid billing period unless a separate written agreement states otherwise.

6. Digital Products, Virtual Assistants, and Automations

Digital products, virtual assistants, automation workflows, prompts, forms, scripts, integrations, content systems, templates, dashboards, CRM structures, and related tools are customized digital services unless expressly sold as a standalone licensed product.

- Digital products may depend on third-party platforms, APIs, hosting, forms, calendars, messaging tools, or software accounts. Judo Marketing is not responsible for outages, policy changes, pricing changes, limitations, or service interruptions caused by third-party providers.
- Virtual assistants and automations may require client review, testing, training, access permissions, and periodic updates. The client is responsible for supervising outputs and verifying accuracy before relying on them.
- No virtual assistant, automation, or digital product should be used as a substitute for legal, medical, financial, clinical, emergency, professional, or licensed advice unless separately reviewed and approved by the appropriate professional.
- Sensitive or regulated information should not be entered into digital products unless secure procedures and required agreements are in place.

7. No Guarantee of Results

Judo Marketing may use reasonable professional efforts to improve presentation, organization, automation, visibility, lead capture, advertising structure, client experience, or marketing performance. However, Judo Marketing does not guarantee sales, leads, revenue, booked appointments, return on ad spend, platform approval, search ranking, audience growth, viral content, or any specific business outcome.

Results vary based on market conditions, pricing, offer quality, competition, client responsiveness, budget, brand reputation, platform algorithms, third-party policies, and other factors outside of Judo Marketing's control.

8. Revisions, Scope, and Change Requests

The included scope, revisions, timelines, deliverables, and support are determined by the applicable proposal, subscription plan, or written agreement. Minor changes may include text edits, image replacement, basic layout adjustments, appointment link updates, small content changes, and simple website updates.

New pages, full redesigns, new branding, complex automations, custom integrations, advanced forms, new campaigns, strategy changes, extra meetings, rush work, copywriting outside scope, and significant changes may require additional fees or a new quote.

9. Intellectual Property and Ownership

Ownership depends on the service purchased and the payment status of the account. Unless otherwise stated in writing, Judo Marketing retains ownership of its internal methods, templates, reusable systems, frameworks, workflows, prompts, source files, editable design files, draft concepts, strategy documents, automation structures, and proprietary processes.

Client-provided materials remain the property of the client. Final deliverables specifically transferred to the client after full payment may be used by the client for its business. Third-party software, fonts, stock assets, plugins, themes, hosting platforms, and licensed tools remain subject to their own license terms.

10. Website and Domain Ownership

For monthly website subscription plans, ownership of the website and domain is governed by the applicable Subscription and Website Ownership Policy, proposal, or written agreement. If the plan states that the website and domain become the client's property after the third month of paid service, ownership transfers only after three full monthly payments have been received and the account is current.

Until ownership transfer requirements are satisfied, Judo Marketing may retain administrative control, platform access, design files, domain access, or hosting configuration as needed to protect unpaid work and maintain service integrity.

11. Advertising and Platform Policies

Advertising services are subject to the rules of platforms such as Meta, Google, TikTok, LinkedIn, email providers, SMS providers, payment processors, and other third-party platforms. Judo Marketing does not control platform approvals, disapprovals, suspensions, review times, reach, impressions, costs, or algorithmic delivery.

The client is responsible for making truthful claims, maintaining required licenses, honoring advertised offers, complying with platform policies, and ensuring that all advertisements are legal for the client's industry.

12. Confidentiality

Each party may receive nonpublic business, technical, financial, marketing, strategic, client, or operational information. Each party agrees to use reasonable care to protect confidential information and to use it only for the purpose of providing or receiving services.

Confidentiality obligations do not apply to information that is public, independently developed, lawfully received from another source, or required to be disclosed by law.

13. HIPAA and Sensitive Information

For healthcare or regulated clients, Judo Marketing will use HIPAA-compliant and encrypted platforms when applicable. If protected health information will be processed, a Business Associate Agreement must be signed before such information is transmitted or processed.

The client must limit sensitive information to the minimum necessary and must not send unnecessary patient, client, medical, financial, or regulated information through unsecured channels.

14. Suspension and Termination

Judo Marketing may pause, suspend, or terminate services for nonpayment, failure to provide required information, abusive conduct, illegal requests, policy violations, security concerns, misuse of services, or work that creates legal, ethical, reputational, or platform compliance risk.

Upon termination, unpaid balances remain due. Access to deliverables, domains, files, accounts, or systems may be limited until outstanding amounts are paid and ownership conditions are satisfied.

15. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Judo Marketing will not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, punitive, or lost-profit damages, including loss of revenue, data, goodwill, opportunities, advertising spend, platform access, or business interruption.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Judo Marketing's total liability for any claim is limited to the amount paid by the client to Judo Marketing for the specific service giving rise to the claim during the three months before the event giving rise to liability.

16. Indemnification

The client agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Judo Marketing from claims, damages, losses, liabilities, costs, and expenses arising from client-provided materials, inaccurate information, illegal claims, regulatory violations, breach of these Terms, misuse of deliverables, platform violations, advertising claims, or the client's products, services, operations, employees, contractors, or customers.

17. Electronic Agreements

Electronic signatures, online approvals, payment authorizations, checkbox agreements, email approvals, and digital records may be used to form and confirm agreements. Electronic records and signatures are intended to have the same legal effect as paper records and handwritten signatures when permitted by applicable law.

18. Governing Law and Venue

These Terms are governed by the laws of the State of Florida, without regard to conflict-of-law rules. Unless a different written agreement applies, venue for any dispute will be in state or federal courts located in Miami-Dade County, Florida.

19. Updates

Judo Marketing may update these Terms from time to time. Updated terms will be posted on www.judomarketing.net with a revised effective date. Continued use of services after updates means acceptance of the updated terms.

20. Contact

Questions may be sent to admin@judomarketing.net.